

Musee du Loouvre

in Chiswick PRIVATE VIEW ONLY

To help promote awareness of 'Prostate Cancer', I am currently holding a one man show at the 'Loouvre'. But before we start and just to clear up any misunderstanding - It will not actually be held at the historic and world famous Musée du Louvre in Paris, but in the 'Men's Disabled Toilets' at a previously unheard of council building in Chiswick.

Access is strictly limited to invitation only, so please contact me if you want a private viewing as we take your business seriously. Thank you for your patience in this matter.
